DEFINITION
An internship is a form of experiential learning that integrates knowledge and theory learned in the classroom with practical application and skills development in a professional setting. Internships give students the opportunity to gain valuable applied experience and make connections in professional fields they are considering for career paths; and give employers the opportunity to guide and evaluate talent.

- A learning experience that provides for applying the knowledge gained in the classroom. It must not be simply to advance the operations of the employer.
- The skills or knowledge learned must be transferable to other employment settings.
- The experience has a job description with desired qualifications.
- There are clearly defined learning objectives/goals related to the professional goals of the student’s academic coursework.
- Supervision and feedback must be provided by a professional with expertise and background in the field of the experience.
- There are resources, equipment, and facilities provided by the host employer that support learning objectives/goals.

SAINT JOSEPH’S UNIVERSITY INTERNSHIP PROGRAM
An internship typically lasts throughout a semester and/or summer. At Saint Joseph’s University internships can be paid or unpaid, full---time or part---time. Students may also complete internships as part of their educational requirements for academic credit, these experiences may have to meet additional criteria determined by the department. If a student wishes to receive credit it is their responsibility to follow the necessary policies and procedures.
