Service-Learning Program

Registration Guide
First Year Orientation
June 2020
What is Service-Learning?

- Academic courses where students participate in community-based work, such as virtual or direct service.
- Community-based work helps students better understand coursework.
- In the classroom student’s community work is viewed as an additional text.
- Courses designated with “SL” in the section code.
How do I sign up for a Service Learning course?

When you register for classes, select one of the following Fall semester courses...
Fall 2020-Spring 2021 Service-Learning Course Sequences

- EDU 150-SL1, Schools and Society, MWF 10:10 AM, Dr. Johnson, (Fall 2020)
  - Open to Education Majors

- ENG 101-SL1, Craft of Language, MWF, 1:25PM, Dr. Spinner (Fall 2020)
  - Follow-up Spring 2021 semester course: ENG 102-SL1, Texts in Context

- ENG 101-SL2, Craft of Language, TR 12:30 PM, Dr. Green (Fall 2020)
  - Follow-up Spring 2021 semester course: ENG 102-SL2, Texts in Context

See additional Service Learning Course Options on the next slide...
Fall 2020-Spring 2021 Service-Learning Course Sequences

● MKT 150-SL1, Fandom, TR 9:30 AM Dr. Burkhalter (Fall 2020)
  ○ Follow-up Spring 2021 semester course: ENG 102-SL2, Texts in Context

● PHL 150-SL1, Language Deafness & the Mind, TR 9:30 AM Dr. Keller (Fall 2020)
  ○ Follow-up Spring 2021 semester course: PHL 154-SL1, Moral Philosophy

● PHL 150-SL2, Drugs, Freedom & Control, MWF, 12:20 PM, Dr. Boettcher (Fall 2020)
  ○ Follow-up Spring 2021 semester course: PHL 154-SL2, Moral Philosophy

● POL 150-FY1, Diversity & Inequality, MWF 10:10 AM, Dr. Scola (Fall 2020)
  ○ Follow-up Spring 2021 semester course: HIS 154-SLR, Forging the Modern World

● SOC 150-FY1, Social Problems & Social Change, TR 9:30 AM Dr. Bergen (Fall 2020)
  ○ Follow-up Spring 2021 semester course: SOC 202-SLR, Advanced Social Problems
Important Registration Reminders

- The First Year Service-Learning Program is a commitment for both Fall and Spring Semesters.
  - When registering for fall, please take note of the spring semester course. Reserve this course for your spring schedule.
- The Fall XXX 150 courses (e.g., PHL 150) will meet the First Year Seminar Requirement.
  - Only Education Majors may register for the EDU 150/151 sequence.
  - If you are a SOC or CJ major, the SOC 150/202 sequence also will meet major requirements.
- Have you earned AP, IB, or dual enrollment credit for ENG 101?
  - If so, register for one of the First Year Seminar (XXX150) Service Learning Sequences.
- All students who register for a SL course will receive an email in July with information on how to select their service learning placement preferences.