Your voice counts.

Be Heard.
The SJU community will thrive in a healthy environment where respect and inclusion are the norm. The climate study will help us understand the current state of inclusion for all of our students, faculty and staff.

Participate.
Support the University’s commitment to be an inclusive and diverse community that educates and cares for the whole person. We will use the study’s results to strengthen what’s working and to address problematic issues.

rankinsurveys1.com/sju