SJU President Leads A-10 Council of Presidents

PHILADELPHIA (June 26, 2017) — SJU President Mark C. Reed, Ed.D., was named chair of the Atlantic 10 Council of Presidents at their annual spring meeting. Dr. Reed replaces outgoing chair Stephen Knapp, Ph.D., president of George Washington University, for a three-year term beginning in July.

The Atlantic 10 Conference consists of 14 members across eight states and Washington, D.C., providing an enhanced student-athlete experience through 21 nationally competitive championship sports. The basketball-centric conference, which regularly receives multiple bids to the NCAA Basketball Championships, is committed to integrity, educational excellence and providing quality equitable championship experiences for its student-athletes, coaches, and support staff.

SJU FACT: Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on October 26, 1967, addressed 3,400 students, faculty and community members who gathered to hear his words in Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse now known as the Hagan Arena. Watch for events celebrating Dr. King on campus this year.
