COMMUNITY STANDARDS - ACCESS TO STUDENT RECORD INFORMATION

This document provides information regarding access to student records for Community Standards matters. The Office of Community Standards can and does communicate with any Saint Joseph’s University community member or family member regarding the Community Standards process, without reference to a specific incident or matter. The protection of student records afforded by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 may prevent sharing more specific information (https://sites.sju.edu/registrar/resources/ferpa/).

HOW IS THE OUTCOME OF A HEARING DISCLOSED?

The respondent shall be notified in writing of the outcome of a Community Standards hearing, in most cases within three business days after the hearing process concludes.

The University does not disclose information regarding a student record, other than to the respondent; unless expressly permitted by law, for example:

• School Officials: Information may be shared with school officials whom the University has determined have a legitimate educational interest (e.g. for purposes of student support, assistance with the Community Standards process, sanction compliance, interim measure enforcement, student status).

• Parents/Guardians: Parents/guardians of dependent student respondents may be informed of Community Standards outcomes and sanctions, consistent with applicable considerations (e.g. nature of violation, outcome, sanctions, student status). Parents/guardians of dependent student respondents under age twenty-one may be informed of Community Standards outcomes and sanctions with respect to the use or possession of alcohol or controlled substances.

• Crimes of Violence, Sexual Harassment, or Retaliation: The alleged victim of a crime of violence, sexual harassment, or retaliation of the aforementioned, or the victim’s next of kin (if the victim dies as a result of the crime or offense), will be notified of the Community Standards outcomes and sanctions (e.g. contact restriction) of the complaint related to the victim, in writing. The final results of these proceedings may also, in rare cases, be disclosed to the University community.

• Interim Measures and/or Sanctions: In some cases, information regarding a Community Standards matter may be shared with other students for the purpose of interim measure and/or sanction enforcement.
