Student Workers

Almas: The Almas are a student group that deepens the Institute's partnership with Covenant House of Pennsylvania, an organization that serves homeless youth, through direct service.

Each week, students in the Almas Community go to Covenant House to facilitate activities such as discussion groups, educational games, creative writing sessions and crafts.

2015-16 Almas: Molly Anderson, Daniella Capone, Amber Denham, Lindsay Hueston, Amelia McGrath, Tabitha Pitten, Emma Seely and Taylor Wallburg.

Placement Liaisons: The Placement Liaisons (PL) develop and enhance deeper and sustained partnerships with community partner organizations which receive Service-Learning students.

Each PL serves as a "expert" of their cohort of 5-7 community partners in order to assist students in best understanding their role as volunteers and the partner's role as a co-educator.

2015-16 Placement Liaisons: Casey Brands, Colleen Carmody, Kevin Curtis, Lizzie Fuller, Lauren Navarro, David Ryan and Becky Ward.

Service Scholars: The Service Scholars Service Scholars work with their assigned faculty member to foster a classroom environment that promotes critical thinking and reflection on service, social problems and how the works of faith respond to social injustices.

2015-16 Service Scholars: Krista Bourgey, Christopher Diehl, Jake Diehl, Michelle Donnelly, Emily Hopkins, Jimmy Hutchinson, Colleen Logan, Becky McIntyre, Jack Norberg, Gabby Rosazza and Liz Sohmer.

Reception Area Student Workers: The Reception Area Student Workers work with professional staff providing administrative support for all of the Institute's programs and events. 2016-5-16 Reception Area Student Workers: Cassie Benavides, Madison Carnation, Jake Diehl, Sarah Ferguson, Jana Kahn, Dana Mangrelli, Tara McBride, Laura Moran, Michael Mullins, Vikira Pigford, José Rosado, Savanna Wargo, Angie Yu.
