

CHRISTIAN W. E. HAUB

Board Member, Initiative for Family Business and Entrepreneurship

Christian W. E. Haub is Co-Chief Executive Officer of The Tengelmänn Group in Germany, one of the world's largest family owned, diversified retail and investment companies with activities in Europe, Asia, Africa and the Americas. Tengelmänn's operations and investments encompasses a portfolio of more than 50 companies worldwide generating combined revenues in excess of $20 billion.

Christian is a member of the fifth generation running the Tengelmänn Group. He also serves as Chairman and President of Emil Capital Partners overseeing Tengelmänn's retail operations, real estate and investment activities in the Americas.

Emil Capital Partners invests in early stage consumer businesses in North America, with a special focus on consumer products in the healthy lifestyle space, as well as investments in digital media, sustainable clothing and consumer technology solutions.

Christian also serves as the Chief Family Officer for the Tengelmänn Group overseeing the activities of the family office, including family engagement, next generation development and investment management.

Christian was born in Tacoma, Washington but spent his childhood growing up in Germany. He graduated from the University of Economics and Business Administration in Vienna, Austria. He serves on the Board of Metro Inc., one of Canada's largest food retailers and is a member of the board of trustees at Boston College.

