

Four-Part Series:

Keeping it in the Family: Best Practices for Engaging the Next Generation of Family Business Leaders

The next generation of leaders is a key component to long-term success for a family-owned business. The ability to engage and develop younger family members helps them effectively balance the responsibilities and opportunities of their family legacy.

Join Wells Fargo Middle Market Banking, Abbot Downing, and Saint Joseph's University's Haub School of Business for a free, four-part series focused on best practices for planning and preparing family businesses for successful transitions. The series consists of two live sessions and two dial-in webinars featuring experts in the field of family business.

Part 3 –Seminar: Successful Succession — Getting In and Getting Out

Hear case studies and best practices for effective change management focused on transition strategies for both family business founders and future leaders. The examples will spark innovation, move the family business forward, and ultimately lead to greater progress and profitability.
