Participants of the June NexGen Academy were blown away by what they took away from this 2 day workshop.

Here's why you should attend from participants Charles (1st generation) and Chad (2nd generation) Grimley.

Charles Grimley
President & CEO of Grimley Financial Corporation

Chad Grimley
Finance Manager at Grimley Financial Corporation

The whole experience was a positive affirmation of how we run our business, plus these extremely valuable takeaways...

1. Refreshers on business basics such as accounting
2. The importance of health and wellness in the work environment
3. Interactive panel discussions
4. Facilitated conversations between 1st and 2nd generations
5. Meaningful connections made with other participants

I attended for helpful tips on how to run my family business, what I got was so much more…

1. Current information on the latest trends in innovation from industry experts
2. Lessons in self-discovery and strength finding
3. Real life scenarios from family business experts
4. Meaningful connections with other participants
5. 2 days spent with family
