

Graduate Writing Studies Thesis Advisor Listing

Dr. Kay Cosgrove
kcosgrov@sju.edu

Poetry is her favorite, but she has also worked with nonfiction, fiction and young adult fiction.

Professor Tenaya Darlington tdarling@sju.edu

Her background is in fiction, food writing, and professional writing (blogs, websites, campaigns). She has worked on many thesis projects, including novels, story collections, oral history projects, and even a magazine that a student created for an organization.

Dr. Melissa Goldthwaite
mgoldthw@sju.edu

Her specialties include creative writing (creative nonfiction, memoir, poetry, food writing, epistolary writing, and nature and environmental writing) and rhetoric (especially style and rhetoric's of silence and listening).

Dr. April Lindner
alindner@sju.edu

Her areas of expertise are poetry and fiction.

Dr. Jenny Spinner
jspinner@sju.edu

She works with thesis students who have an interest in creative nonfiction, journalism, the essay and other forms of nonfiction writing and literature.

Professor Gina Tomaine
gtomaine@sju.edu

Her specialties include creative nonfiction and essays, young adult fiction, novels, journalism and magazine writing.